This matter was opened to the New Jersey State Board of Accountancy upon the receipt of a consumer complaint that revealed respondent has been unlawfully holding out as a certified public accountant in the unregistered firm of "Siegel and Gluckman, CPA, LLP.," in violation of N.J.S.A. 45:1-23.

Respondent admitting to the aforementioned conduct, and the parties having agreed and consented to the resolution of this matter without the necessity of the Board of Accountancy seeking injunctive relief, fines and costs in the Superior Court of New Jersey, and respondent understanding the terms and impact of the within Order,

ACCORDINGLY, IT IS on this 20 day of August, 2007,

ORDERED AND AGREED:

1. Respondent shall cease and desist holding himself out to the public as a certified public accountant, an accountant, or an auditor licensed in the State of New Jersey. He shall not use any stationery, rubber stamps, business cards, taped messages, or other representations indicating he is an accountant licensed in the State of New Jersey, nor shall he advertise as a firm of accountants or list himself or his firm Siegel and Gluckman, CPA, LLP, as certified public accountants. He shall take affirmative steps to remove such designations from all directories and provide the board with written proof of that action.

2. Respondent shall pay a $10,000.00 civil penalty and costs of $315.00 to the New Jersey State Board of Accountancy contemporaneously with the entry of this Order, by certified check or money order payable to the Treasurer, State of New Jersey.
